Course Name	Course Code	Schedule Start/End Date <small>(changes may occur)</small>	Course Description
Music & Pop Culture	GAS109-38	three days per week: Mon, Wed and Thurs 8:30 am to 11:30 am (all online) July 5 ends August 5	This course will give students the opportunity to think creatively and critically about the influence of popular music. Students will explore different music genres (rock, metal, hip hop and rap), their development and social significance. Students may explore music in film, commercials, war and protest, social and civil rights movements, and the contributions of specific artists to contemporary culture. The ways in which popular music has contributed to the current culture and, in turn, how culture has shaped popular music will be examined.
Personal and Academic Success Strategies	HDG122-85	three days per week: Mon, Tues and Wed 8:30 am to 11:30 am (all online) July 5 ends August 4	This course will prepare you for the rigors of academic life and enable you to develop a personal profile for college and career success. The main focus of this course will include accepting personal responsibility, discovering self-motivation, mastering self-management, employing interdependence, gaining self-awareness, adopting lifelong learning and developing emotional intelligence. In addition, you will identify your personal learning style, communication style, and personality style to enable you to achieve success in learning about, understanding, and choosing the courses and careers that will lead to personal and professional satisfaction.
